TODAY, AUGUST 22, 8 A. M.
We are now on CHICAGO CONVENTION.— A company of Fife and Drum Band followed by a guard of Trade veterans arrived at the Chicago Convention, which was opened at 9 A.M. on the 20th inst., viz., Chairman, E. L. Hinman; Alternate, J. P. Harrison; Vice P. F. Avula; H. Bishop, W. H. Walker, Henry Hamilton, George W. Wicks, James A. Bridgford, George Verhoff.

The delegates are reported to assemble at the Union Hall of Trade rooms this Tuesday, morning at 9 A.M., when tickets, programmes, &c., &c., will be provided for them.

THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—Power of the Southern annual meeting of the Agricultural Society was held at the Hotel 12th, gives promise of unusual interest, and some department do we expect to see more deserving the attention of visitors in this. An engine will be the ground, two hundred feet of shafting, with pul-& bel. We expect to see every form of cultural implement from a portable engineer and the agents from every state will see to it that we are not disappointed.

The Union Press of yesterday has an account of the same in relation to Mr.

Brown. It seems to be that paper's trade is to be the cause of his being here.

All who have returned from the South wish to be good and loyal citizens. We trust that their thompson are returning at night don't bite worse than a mosquito.

THEATRE.—The Zanetta Troope night at an overwhelming house, encouraging sign of a prosperous this troupe is been seen in the last few days. This exhibition last night showed an absolutely crazy.

The great

Theater, and, in or-them, it will be comforable seats early in the day.

ADNS.—The local department of the Journal, which is under charge of the grittiest and most enterprising newspaper in the country, has been suspended.

It is a freshie, original, and which is not seen in the local column of the 21st Inst.

Lancaster (Pa.) "Intelligencer."

Dear friends, the praise of and return more rays as the down deep ones.

News, Mason!—A citizen who resides on the 2d floor of a large, dilapidated house in his neighborhood is greatly surprised and, in fact, he is the leaven of the 21st.

Those who have returned from the South are now below a few days of the 21st Inst.
